Proudly Presents

Master Chef 2014

Monday October 27, 2014 ~ McKenzie-Merket Alumni Center

Featuring Chef Jeff Bacon,
CEC CCA AAC
Winston Salem, NC
Triad Community Kitchen

Certified Executive Chef, Jeff Bacon, a Dietary Manager & Certified Culinary Administrator, serves as the Executive Chef, Program Director and Training Instructor for the Second Harvest Food Bank of NWC. Second Harvest—also known as Feeding America—provides food assistance to 25 million people each year, including nearly nine million children. It is an invaluable non-profit program that provides culinary training for the unemployed and underemployed and it provides meals for those in need.) He is a past president and vice-president of the American Culinary Federation-Triad Chapter and he currently serves as the Southern Region Vice President. He also sits on the National ACF Internal Audit Committee. Chef Jeff has won innumerable culinary arts awards, including the 2002 Triad Chef of the Year Award and the 2005 ACF National Presidents Medallion. He has dedicated his life to his mission field, the professional kitchen. One of the crowning achievements of his culinary career is when he was inducted into the American Academy of Chefs in 2008.
